

Celebrate your retirement

At Omega SeniorCare, you can look forward to a retirement lifestyle you can truly enjoy and where age is celebrated.

With two Eastern Suburbs retirement communities – Leabrook Place at Leabrook and The Glenbrook at Glenside, both these estates are elegant and refined with the apartments and community facilities warm and inviting.

There is an air of composure and tranquility with both of these vibrant communities where friendships flourish and there's always something to do or a friend to have a cup of tea and a chat with. Likened to a neighbourhood from a time long gone, people watch out for one another, engage in as much or as little social activity as they desire and still respect individual privacy.

Omega SeniorCare is arguably one of Adelaide's leading providers of quality, value for money retirement apartments.

With a long standing reputation for excellence and reliability, Omega's philosophy is based on an expression of family values that provide residents with quality of life, choice, comfort, privacy, security and peace of mind. Phone 8131 3933 or visit the website www.omegaseniorcare.com.au
